

EXORSIZM

installation, 2011

114 x 71 cm

(mirror, wooden box, computer, projector)

Exorsizm is a visual installation developed late 2010 and exhibited for the first time in March 2011 in Lausanne, Switzerland.

The facility consists of a rectangular box of 11.4 x 71cm, and 20cm thick.

By its brightness and purity, exorsizm is calling the public, creating a specific experience to each one that looks at it. The viewer become a complet part of the work. He's sometimes printed on it (on the mirror), and sometimes support himself when he reach the beam of the projector.

video: <http://www.dada.fm/index.php?/installation/>

© 2011 david houcheringer & mirko eremita

